Manhattan Project National Historical Park Description
This page was intentionally left blank.
The Manhattan Project National Historical Park (MAPR), consistent with the Park’s enabling legislation, consists of the following (see attached map [Figure 1]):

- Bruggemann’s Agricultural Complex Warehouse (Figure 2).
- B Reactor National Historic Landmark (Figure 3).
- Hanford Irrigation District (Allard) Pump House (Figure 4).
- White Bluffs Bank, in the White Bluffs Historic District (Figure 5).
- Hanford High School, in the Town of Hanford and Hanford Construction Camp Historic District (Figure 6).

The MAPR was authorized by Congress and signed into law at the end of calendar year 2014 in the National Defense Authorization Act of 2015. The following figures define the geographical areas of MAPR.
