These drawings include historical information available for informational use regarding the construction of foundations similar to the existing building slab and foundations to be removed during construction of the OF200 MTF. These drawings are being provided as a convenience to offerors in order to illustrate the design configuration for similar building foundations. The Government does not guarantee or warrant the accuracy of the drawings. These drawings are not part of the solicitation and in no way modify the terms thereof.